ABOUT ME

Frontend developer looking for new opportunities. Worked with the development of internal and commercial projects. Created technical documentation for the project, trained and explained the project to new team members, pitched own ideas for product development, and built all project features. I am an energetic, ambitious and persistent person who never stops and I am currently practicing with React to expand my knowledge. I quickly absorb information and understand the concept of deadlines. I believe that my knowledge, my desire and experience will fully satisfy your requirements.
